Remain standing as the academic procession leaves the auditorium.

Please join us for a reception to honor our graduates immediately following the ceremony. The reception will take place at the University Student Center Grand and Continental Ballrooms, located at 800 21st Street, NW, 3rd Floor.
Dear Graduate:

On behalf of the faculty, students, and staff of the Graduate School of Education and Human Development, I congratulate you on this special event, your 2022 GSEHD Graduation. This milestone in your academic career represents many hours of work and dedication, and I commend you for your efforts.

As you leave us, I encourage you to pursue your ambitions and dreams with passion. To improve the quality of life in our nation, we must stay focused on high quality education, the nurturing of human talent, and the unflagging commitment to increased opportunity for all our people. We have been a beacon to many other countries committed to high standards of access and performance, and we have much to learn from their efforts and successes, especially as the world becomes more complex and interdependent. I hope you will use your talents, knowledge, and passions to strive for these goals.

We hope you will remain connected; please stay in touch! We want to hear about your accomplishments, we would love for you to visit with us, and we will always turn to you for advice on how to improve our programs.

Welcome to the distinguished ranks of alumni of the George Washington University Graduate School of Education and Human Development!

Sincerely,

Michael J. Feuer, Ph.D.
Titilola (Titi) Harley is a Program Officer on the K-12 Education team at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. She leads the Research and Development Team’s work on exploring elements of effective educational solutions and practices that are integral to improving outcomes for students who are Black, Latino, and/or experiencing poverty.

Prior to her work in philanthropy, Titi started her career in the Office of Special Education at DC Public Schools, and eventually transitioned into management consulting supporting education agencies across the country. In 2017 she founded Harley Consulting Group, an equity-focused management consulting firm that partners with school districts, state departments of education, schools, non-profits, and foundations to address their organizational and change management needs to better support young people from all backgrounds and expand access to high-quality education.

Titi received her Bachelor of Business Administration from the George Washington University School of Business in 2007. She was awarded the prestigious Presidential Fellowship to obtain her Master of Business Administration (MBA), and graduated again from the GW School of Business in 2009. Since graduation, she has remained engaged with the university as an alumna. In 2012, Titi was elected to the GW Board of Trustees, and in 2017, she joined GW’s Graduate School of Education and Human Development’s (GSEHD) advisory council – the National Council for Education and Human Development – on which she currently serves as the Chair. Titi was selected as a 2018 “MBA on the Move” by Forte Foundation, and is also a 2021 Innovation for Equity (IFE) Fellow joining a cohort of education and workforce sector leaders, brought together by a shared mission to improve life outcomes for Black learners. Titi is also a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Titi loves to travel, and she and her husband, Kiyon, live in Maryland with their 5-year-old son, Caleb, and 3-year-old daughter, Chloe.
Born in India and raised in British Hong Kong, Nirmala Narayan experientially understands the significance of her dissertation, “Written into Representation: The South Asian Girl in Cultural Texts”. She joined GWU from a predominantly business background with an MBA and Master’s in Marketing and Finance. She has spent the past 20 years in Philadelphia, where she worked in university administration and as a middle school English teacher. Combining elements of her diverse background, her study explores the influence of representations on how a new generation of South Asian girls construct their social and cultural identities. Her long-term goals are to continue to add to the body of knowledge regarding South Asian girls’ experiences in Education. She loves and adores her niece Aditi and her baby nephew Krishna. Her greatest achievement is keeping her potted plant “Plantasia” alive for the duration of her doctoral journey.

Dear Graduate,

On behalf of the GW Alumni Association (GWAA) – congratulations! Today you join a distinct group of more than 27,000 alumni of the Graduate School of Education and Human Development (GSEHD) and over 310,000 George Washington University alumni from around the world. In recognition of your accomplishment, we are honored to welcome you to the GWAA, an invested community that inspires lifelong loyalty through alumni engagement. As a graduate of GW, your membership to the GWAA is automatic.

As you begin a new chapter and pursue your post-academic life and career, please know that the Alumni Association exists to foster connectivity among the GSEHD and GW alumni community. As alumni, you have access to our lifelong learning opportunities (such as our career webinars, library resources and our online networking platform) and our many in-person and virtual events where you can connect with our faculty and network with fellow alumni. And, as the most important stakeholders of the school and the university, we hope you will continue our mission to connect by sharing your insights, knowledge, and expertise with our current and future GSEHD students through mentoring and panel discussions.

Stay in touch with the Alumni Association through our website at alumni.gwu.edu and through our social media channels. Connect back not only with your faculty and cohort, but with the larger GSEHD and GW network around the globe.

Thank you for the work you have done and the work that you will do as leaders in education and human development! All of us at GW are proud of your accomplishment and we look forward to hearing the stories of your continued success.

Welcome to the George Washington Alumni Association!
